Survey on the use of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in households and by individuals 2026

The National Statistics Office (NSO) is conducting a Survey on the use of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in households and by individuals. For this purpose 2,460 persons, including you, have been randomly selected to participate in this survey.

In this regard, in the coming days, an interviewer from the NSO will contact you to conduct the survey over the phone to complete the survey questionnaire.

Aim of the survey: This annual survey is being carried out as part of the European Benchmarking Programme and aims to ensure that EU Member States make the utmost of the improvements which the information society brings with it. The information which will be collected in this survey will be analysed collectively for statistical purposes by all European Union Member State countries so that key information on the dynamics of Information Society is made available at a local level. The collection of this information is partly financed through an EU grant.

Questions to be addressed: This survey includes questions on the use of technology and general demographic questions like age, sex, nationality and education.

Interview dates: Interviews will be held between April and June 2026, from Monday till Friday between 08:30 and 20:00, or Saturday between 08:30 and 18:00.

This information is being requested according to the articles of the Malta Statistics Authority Act - Cap. 422 and the Data Protection Act – Cap. 586 of the Laws of Malta implementing the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). The Office assures that all data collected remains confidential and will be used for statistical purposes only according to the articles and derogations stipulated in the laws quoted above. The Office is obliged to protect your identity and refrain from divulging any data to third parties, that might lead to the identification of persons or entities.

In case you have any difficulty, or your telephone number is either incorrect or does not feature on the front page of this letter, you are kindly requested to contact the Office on 2599 7381/ 82 / 86 between 08:30 to 15:00 from Monday to Friday or send an e-mail on dcu.nso@gov.mt.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Yours sincerely,

Mark Bonello
